Stay Tuned for Further Details...

In the thriller True Mercy, a widower who already has his hands full working full-time and caring for his 18 year-old son with autism finds himself caught up in the world of human trafficking when his son finds a young victim on the grounds of their home. Author and Chabad Center member Idelle

Kursman seeks to bring awareness to two major issues plaguing modern society in her debut novel: the global human trafficking crisis and the plight of families with loved ones with autism.
